

Largest threats (global)

- Habitat loss, change, and lack thereof
- Climate change
- Human conflicts

Largest threats (in your jurisdiction)

- Habitat loss, change, and lack thereof
- Forest practices
- Human-wildlife conflict
- Habitat management
- Insufficient data

Largest obstacles (in your jurisdiction)

- Government / policy regulations
- Funding
- Negative perceptions of Martes
- Conflicting resource goals

Conservation wins

- Species recovery & recolonizations
- Public knowledge & visibility
- New research efforts & findings

Information / research needs (in your jurisdiction)

- Population monitoring
- Identifying habitat needs
- Movement ecology
- Effects of disturbances
- Monitoring methods
- Species interactions

Management / conservation actions needed (in your jurisdiction)

- Habitat protection and restoration
- Human-wildlife conflict concerns
- Climate change action
- Land management
- Increased communication
- Changing public attitudes